FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

UPDATE: AUGUST 16, 2017

SILVER ALERT CANCELLED FOR MISSING WOMAN

Through the use of the state's Silver Alert System, the woman recently reported missing from Trumbull was located safe and unharmed in New York City, with the assistance of the CT State Police and the NYPD. Police notified her family and cancelled the alert.

###

On Tuesday August 15th, the Trumbull Police Department issued a Silver Alert for a 65 year old woman, who has been missing for about one week.

The woman, Beverly Bisch, who resides in Stern Village in Trumbull, was last seen at about 7 a.m. on Tuesday, August 8th at the Bridgeport Railroad Station where she was dropped off there by a friend. Ms. Bisch said that she intended to visit an acquaintance in New York City on that date, but police have been unable to determine her exact destination.

Ms. Bisch is a white female, approximately 5'6" tall, with brown hair and blue eyes. She was last seen wearing jeans, a T-shirt and blue, white and pink sneakers. She uses a walker to assist her and has cardiac and diabetic medical issues.

If anyone has any information regarding this incident, or may have seen Ms. Bisch, please the Trumbull Police Department directly at 203-261-3665.

Stern Village is a residential housing complex located on Hedgehog Road in Trumbull, which has a large elderly population.
