FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AUGUST 18, 2017

THREE JUVENILES APPREHENDED IN STOLEN VEHICLE

On August 17, 2017, a Trumbull police officer on patrol stopped a Chevrolet sedan for an equipment violation. The vehicle was found to be stolen and officers arrested the three teenage occupants.

At 2:20 A.M. on August 17th a Trumbull officer on patrol spotted a 2008 Chevy Cobalt traveling on Old Town Road. The car's rear plate was not illuminated. The officer checked the vehicle's registration and it was discovered the car was stolen on July 31, 2017 from Stamford, CT. The operator of the vehicle pulled over for the officer after he activated his emergency lights. The three juvenile occupants of the car were ordered out and all complied. Two were age sixteen and one age seventeen. The sixteen year-old driver was charged with third degree Larceny and operating without a license. The other two juveniles were charged with conspiracy to commit Larceny. All three were referred to appear at juvenile court on August 23, 2017.
