MAN IN CAR EXPOSED HIMSELF TO JOGGER IN TRUMBULL

On March 14, 2018, a jogger reported to police that a male in his car reportedly exposed himself to her on Huntington Turnpike near the Nichols fields in Trumbull. The male also reportedly followed her and asked repeatedly if she wanted a ride before eventually driving away. Police are requesting that anyone who may have information on this incident please contact us.

On Wednesday March 14, 2018 at around 5:00 p.m., a female was jogging in the Nichols park along Huntington Turnpike (Rt. 108) near Unity Road. The jogger initially saw a small blue car parked next to a larger white vehicle in the dirt lot of the park. The jogger reported the small blue car then began to follow her as she jogged out onto the road. The driver who she described as a white male, aged mid to late 50's, balding, wearing round wire rimmed glasses and a button down shirt pulled the car alongside her and he began to expose himself to her while asking her to get into his car. The female was able to run away un-harmed and the male drove away. The car's license plate was described as being out of state with an orange color and possibly bearing the characters "622FJ".
